PAID SUMMER RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY

The E.P. Bradley Hospital, Brown University affiliated Sleep Research Laboratory in Providence, RI, announces research apprenticeships available for the summer of 2026:

The William C. Dement Summer Sleep and Chronobiology Research Apprenticeship

Full summer experience runs May 25 - August 19, 2026

Application deadline: February 16, 2026

This fellowship is intended for undergraduate students interested in an intense full-summer experience in a human sleep research laboratory.

Recent graduates or doctoral students may apply as well.

The apprenticeship funds travel and registration to the APSS meeting and a summer stipend of $4,500.
